Enchanting, delightful, and serene. This Mesa home and gardens have been lovingly restored and maintained to enhance the beauty and charm of the 1950s architecture and private hillside setting. Situated on ¼ acre and bordered on two sides by greenbelt, this lovely home feels like a retreat, yet is just minutes to downtown and only a few blocks to the beach.

The California cottage-style home has three bedrooms, three full baths, plus a formal dining room, a loft, and a two-car garage. The sunny living room has oak floors and a charming picture window. The kitchen has just been restored, keeping the '50s originality and functionality, but with all new hardware and beautiful stainless steel appliances. The vaulted ceilings and skylights in the dining room make it light and cheery and a great place to entertain. Plus, there's a fun spiral staircase leading to a cozy loft that overlooks the dining room. This creative space has ocean views and an attached bath and...
