HOME #6 - 2016 TAOS PARADE OF HOMES

Slide 1642931

Located in the downtown Taos historic district, this stunning, remodeled, old adobe home graces a ridge near the La Loma Plaza area. Originally built in 1880. In 1944 it became the home and gallery of Beatrice Mandelman and Louis Ribak, contemporary painters who formed the nucleus of a group of painters in Taos who would come to be known as the "Taos Moderns". The current owner completely restored and remodeled the home in 2005 and 2006, keeping, and even enhancing, it's wonderful character and style, adding a sense of whimsy while making it modern, timeless and functional. This 3089 square foot home has 2 bedrooms and 3 baths PLUS 2 studio/office spaces making the floor plan versatile to your needs. There are 4 kiva fireplaces. Viga and latilla ceilings. The floors are rich, rare, reclaimed hardwood or flagstone or tile. Up...
