This 6-bedroom, 7 & 2 1/2-bath, 8,861 sq ft residence designed by award-winning Aspen architect, Charles Cunniffe tastefully adapts the vernacular of European ski lodges to a more refined Colorado mountain style. Perched on the hillside bordering premiere ski in/ski out access to Chair 4 and the Gondola, this location offers 180 degree views of the ski resort, Village Core, coveted Mt. Wilson and sunsets to the west. The grand exterior is anchored to its prominent site by a heavy stone base and its finished appearance exemplifies a more modern ski resort home while three prominent chimneys help accentuate the lodge character. The home's interior detail recalls a "mountain lodge" feel taken to a level of refinement of only unique Rocky Mountain homes, including extensive hand crafted detail and woodwork in each room with cherry, walnut and pecan hardwoods. Complete with a professional k...
