Located in resort-like FHA approved Bay Watch, this dramatic, light and open town home features vaulted ceilings on two floors. With artistic architectural features throughout, the main rooms have eight foot patio doors with windows above that cast two stories of light. There are three skylights. The arches, triangles, and squares work together to create an expansive, uplifting environment. This unit is situated in a quiet location away from busy Capitol Drive and the community pool. The elevation of the home creates privacy for the large, remodeled back yard. Creative tasteful cement work is bordered by two garden areas, and is hidden from the rear parkland walkway by high shrubs and trees. The remodeled kitchen features granite counter tops, ceramic tile floor, new microwave, and a dishwasher. Updated furnace with air conditioning. The built-in office area under a skylight is located in the den which also features a built-in entertainment area. There is direct private garage...
