This is one of those storybook homes you drive by that captures your interest and has you wondering what it looks like inside. This home has one of the best curb presences in Los Verdes. Set away from the street with a spacious driveway and no immediate neighbor on either side, this home offers serenity and privacy on an oversized corner lot. Once inside, the home sounds of rippling water from the outdoor waterfall creating a calming atmosphere. Natural light pours through the home. The private park-like backyard is beautifully landscaped with a firepit, pea gravel sitting area, grass lawn, waterfall and above ground spa. It is the perfect house for entertaining! You will feel like you are away on vacation with ocean views from many of the rooms. All of the bedrooms are on the second level. Downstairs has a glass door entry, formal living room with a fireplace, dining area, remodeled kitchen, family room, and kitchen eating area. Direct access to the garage from the family ...
