An OCEANFRONT beauty! Bald Head Island, NC is easily accessed by private boat or a leisure 20 minute ferry ride. There are no stoplights and no crowds. Golf carts, bikes and boats are the norm. It's a sliver of paradise with 14 miles of pristine beaches and thousands of acres of protected marshes, maritime forests and historic markers from the Revolutionary and Civil wars, not to mention "Old Baldy", North Carolina's oldest standing lighthouse.

Bald Head offers two private clubs, premier golf, tennis, croquet and more. Boaters and fishermen delight with easy access to the Intracoastal Waterway, Cape Fear River and the Atlantic. The island offers a full service spa, marina, gourmet market, hardware store, post office, Chapel, numerous restaurants, shops, a wellness clinic, on-site fire and rescue. It's close to historic Southport and Wilmington.

Bald Head Island. It's a special place to visit and even more special to call home.
