Amazing sunset views from this 1961 mid-century modern inspired Shadow Hills home! Designed by Dawn Rice, the home is embraced by sunshine throughout the day as walls of windows allow for a unique indoor/outdoor flow typical of the mid-century modern style. As you approach the home, a soothing rock fountain greets you. Up one flight of stairs the atrium provides a distinctive welcome and entry to the home. Once inside, views from the living room, dining area, and patio bestow a full view of the San Fernando Valley. Firmly in the Eichler tradition wood beams, sloped ceiling, and floor to ceiling windows blur the lines of an indoor/outdoor binary. Off to the left the remodeled kitchen features a beautiful grey countertop, period styled and colored tile backsplash, matching stainless steel appliances (included), frosted window cabinets, and pull-out drawers. Conveniently stacked washer and dryer located in the kitchen corner makes this kitchen very efficient. Three bedrooms pl...
