Incredible opportunity to have a front-row seat to Malibu's world-famous beaches. This recently remodeled and beautifully custom-designed end-unit in the highly desirable gated community of Point Dume Club is located on a quiet street that slopes gently down to the park's back gate, offering immediate proximity to Westward and Zuma beaches.

The home features high ceilings, exposed beams, and - best of all - wall-to-wall, floor-to-ceiling windows throughout spotlighting the spectacular whitewater ocean views. There's tons of outdoor living space for entertaining and relaxing while watching the waves, including an expansive patio area and a private, separate outdoor living room with built-in seating. Inside, the chef's kitchen is equipped with butcher block countertops and high-end appliances and is open to the dining room, which overlooks one of the most epic sunset views Southern California has to offer.

Multiple generously-sized living spaces feature custom built-i...
