Located in the community of Avignon, set far from the road and surrounded by trees, this Cezanne design backs to woods and creates an distinctive, secluded setting. A warm exterior lead to a neutral interior totally enhanced by loving owners. Like all Avignon homes, the value is in the additions made during the build, and this luxurious residence has a unique double FP that warms both the formal living room and the breakfast area on the other side. A dramatic island kitchen leads through a swinging door to the dining area with large bay window. The main level master bedroom suite is generously sized, with spacious bath and generous closet space. Upstairs are two bedrooms and an open office area. The lower level has been finished with full bath, gathering room & bedroom area; all accessed by separate entry off a flagstone patio. There is ample storage on either side of the finished area. A large deck looks over leafy trees & flowering shrubs. An ideal setting near the s...
