Drive through the private gates, and feel like you are at the Phoenician. Front and back, the grounds, the landscaping and lighting are amazing. Sellers have spent over a million on the property over the past 10 years. Almost everything in the house has been redone with the finest of materials and taste while keeping the integrity of a lovely north central home. Ceilings have been raised; cherry wood flooring; spectacular custom cabinetry throughout; kitchen redone in 2005; guesthouse built in 2006; master bath redone in 2010. This house has everything. Even the backyard has surround sound.
