When one has the ability to pick a lot in the neighborhood and then later gets to customize a house so that it can fit all the the family and friends one can hope to have, the result is 9000 Charred Oak Drive. Built in 1959 for the developer of this choice area, this contemporary has over 4,000 square feet on each well-built level. Backing to wooded Cabin John Park, and located in the area bordered by Bradley Boulevard, River Road, and Seven Locks Road, it enjoys a location that is just minutes to all parts of the DC metro area. Large lots and great access to leisure activities, shopping, and schools make this a sought-after area. "Virtual Tour" includes floor plan.

- Beautiful Lot - Owned by the developer, this was literally the choice lot
- Backing to Cabin John Park
- Open and expansive floor plan
- 12 foot+ cathedral ceilings in main rooms
- Private bedroom wing
- Master bedroom suite
- Work from home with this side and rear entry lower level
- Garage parking for 5 cars
