Meticulously remodeled from top to bottom, this classic 1948 colonial home has it all. Featured in the ASID home tour and winner of “The Golden Key Award”, the word custom is an understatement when describing this one of a kind home. From the moment you pull into the circular driveway, one is welcomed by two massive pillars that set the tone for the opulent décor and attention to detail one experiences while visiting this home. Crown moldings, custom distressed wood floors, a...
