"Founder's Retreat" - Selected from all the lots available to the founding partners of the Mountain Village, this exceptional 4+ acre estate is a truly remarkable assemblage of location, setting, history and quality of improvements. Surrounded by Open Space and ski runs, the residence is accessed from a private drive that opens into the home's park-like grounds. Two acres of manicured grounds are threaded by the rushing waters of Prospect Creek which feed a large reflective pond in the center of the property. A rambling one-story residence, built by renowned builder Fortenberry Construction, was designed specifically for family and entertaining and has hosted many of the regions most notable guests and events over the years. The site would readily accommodate a separate Guest House, or an expansion of the existing 6,500 square foot residence. Despite its incredible privacy, one can walk to the Village Core, Gondola, and restaurants with ease, while seamless ski access is possible fr...
