Longing for that small town feel, where neighbors know each other and bikes roam the streets? This home is perfect for you! With a converted garage it has that coveted flex space that could be used as a second living area, 4th bedroom, game room or craft room. Ceramic tile in the living, dining and kitchen means you can live comfortably without worries about staining carpets. A large fenced yard is perfect for your furry friends. Since it is located in Lahoma this home can qualify for USDA Rural Development which means 100% financing may be available!
