You are going to love this one level, low maintenance, home with private back yard. This end location provides more windows creating a light and bright open living area. The kitchen offers plenty of counter space for food preparation and lots of cabinets for storage. It is open to the eating area and family room with fireplace creating great flow. Stunning wood floors in the main living area. The master bedroom has a decorative tray ceiling and the bath includes a large vanity space, soaking tub, and separate shower. There is plenty of storage with a two car garage with attic storage above. You will also enjoy relaxing or entertaining in the private back yard hideaway. Huge driveway can fit many cars for guest parking and a short distance to Lake Windmere for bird watching.
