Are you looking for a newer home that's close enough to downtown for a quick visit but tucked away far enough from the noise and bustle? This home really has everything, including all the bedrooms on the same upper floor, tankless water heater for instant hot showers, fully-fenced backyard area that has plenty of room for hosting large events, morning sunshine throughout the entire living and dining room, several closets for pantry/storage/linen items, side yard large enough that it could easily be converted to RV parking, and contemporary updates. This home is located in a super quiet neighborhood on a looping road, surrounded by mature-growth trees, is super easy to get to right off of Newberry Hill, and is in the award-winning Central Kitsap School District!
