Let your day begin and end with relaxation in the gated Oaktree neighborhood.

The first sips of morning coffee awaken you in your large first-floor home office overlooking the cul-de-sac, and not a minute too soon, today is your house warming party, and you need to prepare!

Before long, your guests arrive and admire the natural wood floors throughout the home. The open kitchen and family room are ideal for friends to gather for appetizers as dinner is prepared. The back deck and grassy yard make for seamless outdoor entertaining with an evening drink or yard games after dinner.

As the night comes to a close, relax by the pool, knowing this is just the first of many beautiful memories made in your new home.

ABOUT MICHELLE BOLLINGER

Financial benefits are always a key aspect of homeownership, but it's also important to understand that the nonfinancial and personal benefits are why so many people genuinely fall in love with their homes. When you own your own home, you likely feel a sense of emotional attachment because of the comfort it provides, but also because it's a space that's truly yours.
