Located in the historically-rich Pelanconi neighborhood of Glendale, this lovely traditional home welcomes you with a wonderful front porch where you can sip on a cold drink on a warm summer night while enjoying the beautiful view of the Verdugo Hills! Built in 1948, this home flows wonderfully as you walk from an entry that leads into a very spacious living room featuring a large picture window and stunning traditional fireplace. Upgraded kitchen and impressive baths with floor to ceiling marble tile add to gracious living. An extra large Master Bedroom has its own Master bath and features a sitting area that can easily double as a great work-from-home space. Two additional bedrooms, one of which has a large bay window facing the Verdugo Hills, are located near the front of the house with a convenient bathroom nearby. Notable features include a 2-year-old roof and water heater, and a recently installed Central Air & Heating system. California indoor-outdoor living i...
