You are going to love this all brick transitional home with a stunning screened porch looking over the park like back yard. The formal rooms all have heavy trim and hardwood floors. The kitchen features stainless appliances, gas cooking, ample granite counter top space for food preparation and plenty of tall cabinets for storage. There is a warm gas log fireplace in the family room which has high ceilings. The primary bedroom is generous in size and includes a large step down flex space perfect for a home office, gym, or hobby area. One secondary bedroom has a private bath of its own and the other two share a hall bath. Tremendous storage in the walk up attic. All in Gatling Pointe that has a private yacht club with pool, full service restaurant and boat slips available. Close to the charming small town of Smithfield with quaint shops and fun restaurants.
