This charming 1956 home, nestled on the Boise bench, presents a world of possibilities for those seeking to make their mark on a property. While the house requires some updates and repairs, the good news is that it is eligible for financing through a conventional loan. The roof and foundation are both in excellent shape, providing a sturdy base for your renovation plans. The original hardwood floors inside lend character to the space. Meanwhile, the kitchen and bathroom await your personal touch and offer ample room for modern amenities. Outside, the spacious backyard offers an ideal setting for landscaping, gardening, and outdoor recreation. Additionally, the location is unbeatable for those who desire proximity to downtown Boise and easy access to shopping, dining, and parks.
