Nestled in the heart of the gorgeous Hunter's Run community, this exquisite home features gleaming hardwood floors that lead through your open floor plan on the main level.

You'll entertain with ease in your beautiful great room, and be bathed in the natural light that streams through the custom oversized west facing windows that overlook the waterfront.

Your main level master suite offers you peace and privacy, complete with a spa-like master bath and a large walk-in closet / dressing room. Three additional bedrooms on the lower level provide versatility for guests or others, away from the main level and adjacent to a large gathering room that you'll enjoy for quiet visits or winding down after a full day of activities.
