This custom-built, 2800 square foot, 4 bedroom, 2.25 bath home was designed to offer wonderful shared living areas and quiet, personal spaces, inside, along with plenty of room for fun and friendly gatherings, outside. Complementing its list of design features, the home is cradled among the native evergreens and deciduous old-growth common to north Seattle's historic Carkeek Park, and sits on over 9000 square feet of serene, naturally verdant property on a quiet, dead-end street.

At first approach, it's easy to see that the home takes full advantage of its uniquely tranquil setting and private location as you are greeted by the prominent architectural feature of an expansive, territorial view deck. Underneath, is the entrance to an attached garage, plus one of several off-street parking spaces. Proceed inside to find shi...
