Nestled high atop Green Mountain, this home feels like a palace. Upon entering the 20 foot wrought-iron European mansion door from the 1870's, you find yourself in the stunning foyer with marble columns, arched, vaulted, coffered and plastered ceilings ($100,000 value). The main theme throughout this beautifully built home are the priceless solid wood Metropolitan Opera House doors ($100,000 value). There are 5 curved and 4 flat doors with French Master oil paintings above. Other features of this residence include: beautiful custom plasterwork throughout ($100,000 value), custom-built mahogany library ($150,000 value), Czechoslovakian crystal chandeliers and sconces from the Denver Tea Room ($100,000 value), a Bose stereo system ($30,000 value), custom draperies throughout (($50,000 value) and custom marble throughout ($50,000 value). There are 38 custom solid core doors, kitchen cabinets, bathroom and laundry all match the opera house door theme ($50,000 value). The attent...
