9209 Camelback Drive, built in 2008, is a 10,379 square foot custom home built by Ruben Calvino of Calvino Homes. This magnificent property is in a class all its own. Visually, you get the feel of an old world Italian village, with dramatic roof line variations and multiple stone chimneys arising from the vast stretch of roof line tile. As you approach this stunning Estate through the rock and iron gated entry, there is almost a picturesque quality about the setting. A must see!
