Stunning two bedroom, three bathroom plus flex space ideally located just steps from all that Cherry Creek offers but still private, secluded, and secure. Architecturally striking open-concept living space adorned with sleek finishes, rich hardwood floors, and expansive floor-to-ceiling windows, filling the rooms with abundant natural light. Modern chef's kitchen with 42" cabinetry, top-line appliances, and ample storage seamlessly nestled into the far corner next to the outdoor terrace, providing the perfect entertainment space. Enter the grand full-core double doors to your private primary oasis with a luxurious spa-like five-piece en suite bathroom and massive owner's closet. The second bedroom with a second well-appointed ensuite bath is strategically located in a separate wing, providing additional privacy and tranquility. An extra flex space that closes on both sides and is currently used as an office space. The amenities and common areas at Monroe Point are second to...
