Welcome into this incredibly affordable near Eastside home offering all kinds of potential to anyone who has a vision and love for these early American homes. The community of Highland Park is attainable to both first time home buyers and to investors capable of seeing this longtime, well-loved family home's potential. Also on property and not included in MLS square footage is an approximately 400sf garage conversion casita offering a large living space, kitchenette, and full bath for office, visiting guests, extended family, and/or income potential. There is no existing survey and the seller is in no position to negotiate around repairs. Bring your imagination and propensity for a little elbow grease when you view this property listed well below the appraisal district's assessment. Room sizes are approximations; please confirm schools and room sizes. Thank you for viewing!

- Desirable Highland Park Neighborhood • Mature Trees
- 3/2 Front House
