You are going to love this waterfront, end unit townhouse with first floor primary bedroom, 3 car garage, and screened porch, and ample storage. Enter the main level and find soaring ceilings in the dining area and family room accented by beautiful hardwood floors and a warm fireplace. The kitchen has an eating area with bay window looking over the lake, plenty of granite countertops for food prep and an abundant number of cabinets and pantry for storage. The screened porch is another nice area to enjoy your morning coffee and look over the lake. The first floor primary bedroom is generous and also has high ceilings. The updated bath is luxurious and offers a large shower and jetted tub. There are two more bedrooms on the second floor with a full bath and large walk in attic. The basement has bedroom number four, the third full bath and a home office. The garage is huge and currently houses two cars and a wood working shop and huge shelved storage closet. Out back is a small...
