You are going to love this clean and nicely appointed home in the charming neighborhood of New Port. It has a huge kitchen with a large granite island and a big, bright, beautiful morning room with high ceiling that fits a large table. There is a ton of tall cabinets and loads of counter space. The kitchen opens to the generous family room that has great wall space for furniture placement. On the front of the home is flex space that could be a formal dining room or an office or play area for young ones. There are good sized bedrooms upstairs with a primary bedroom with private bath. The fenced back yard keeps kids and pets safe and offers plenty of privacy. New Port features a pool, clubhouse, grass cutting, and cable all included in the association.
