Welcome to a stunning Cape Cod offering over 5,000 square feet of thoughtfully designed living space, where quality craftsmanship and meticulous planning shine throughout. This 4-bed, 4-bath home has been exceptionally well maintained and was carefully laid out at the time of construction to maximize both functionality and flow. The heart of the home features a massive open-concept living area that seamlessly connects the living room, dining space, and kitchen—perfect for entertaining or everyday living. A striking masonry stone fireplace anchors the space, adding warmth, character, and timeless appeal. The lower level offers incredible flexibility with the potential for a mother-in-law suite, complete with privacy and space to accommodate extended family. Prefer entertainment? Keep the current setup as an impressive man cave featuring its own true cinema-style theater—ideal for movie nights and game days. Step outside and you'll find just as much to love.
