You are going to love this brick transitional home on a large homesite in a quiet cul-de-sac in the award winning community of Gatling Pointe. Enter into a two story foyer with turned staircase and hardwood floors that extend into the formal rooms. The kitchen has a large granite island, plenty of cabinets, and ample counter space for food preparation. It is open to the family room with built in cabinets and gas log fireplace. The primary bedroom has a tray ceiling and a big walk in closet. It adjoins a bath with double vanities, jetted tub and tile shower. The remaining bedrooms are all generous in size with good closet space. There is plenty of storage space in the pull down attic and two car side load garage. The yard is beautifully landscaped and maintained.
