Museum-quality details, artistry, and the finest materials were used throughout this incomparable ten acre estate home: 50 hand-carved, imported stone columns, numerous hand-painted wall murals and ceilings, mahogany doors, custom cabinetry, built-ins, unique stone floors and counters, all coupled with the latest in technology and appliances. A gated entrance leads up to a 16' Cantera stone fountain in the circular drive laid in mosaic stone. Spanish marble large-slab floor, hand-painted walls, Swarovski crystal chandeliers and 16' ceilings create a spectacular grand entrance. The dining room epitomizes a true Spanish hacienda experience with brick walls, mahogany built-in and an exquisite wall mural by artist Quintin Perez. The kitchen has custom alder cabinetry, an arched brick ceiling and hand-painted tile backsplash. The theatre room has comfortable seating for nine, a hand-painted ceiling, and a 196" screen. The two guest suites continue the impressive detail and comfort ...
