The oldest home in Frederick County is situated on just over 7 acres one mile above the Potomac River in Jefferson Maryland. The home is the original Luckettes Merry midnight home built by Lord Lucketts on land that was originally deeded by the King of England. The 16 room home has six fireplaces, one in the kitchen, heart of pine flooring throughout, many built-ins, original woodwork, exposed original log wall in the kitchen and much charm and elegance.

Enjoy the expansive front porch with room to entertain or the enclosed porch and patio.

All of the original out buildings are still in place including a poultry house, storage shed, machine shed and run in shed. Two car garage and a barn all overlooking a pond and an amazing variety of mature trees and landscaping. Horses are allowed. Partially fenced yard.

Built-in bookcase(s), Ceiling fan(s), Country kitchen, Dishwasher, Disposal, Exhaust fan/hood, Foyer, Full master bathroom, Gas range and oven, Ice ma...
