You are going to love this affordable brick rancher with a one car garage and fenced back yard in a quiet cul-de-sac neighborhood. Enter into a foyer with wood floors. A large formal living room is to the left. It has plenty of wall space for furniture placement. Can be used as a home office or play area. A dining room is to the right and has a large window for plenty of light and also has hardwood floors. The kitchen has ample counter top space for food preparation and has a breakfast bar. It is open to the family on the back of the house. The family room has a cozy fireplace and good wall space for furniture placement. The primary bedroom has a bath of its own and two more bedrooms share the hall bath. The back yard is fenced which is nice for pet and children. One car garage attached and driveway space for parking. Roof is only a year old.
