Welcome to 732 Onarga Ave, a rare opportunity in the best location! Tucked away on a quiet cul de sac in the tranquil hills of Highland Park overlooking magical views of Los Angeles from the backyard, this beautiful setting awaits. You have to go there to truly feel the calming energy of the location, it really is something special. With new systems like plumbing, electrical, roof, windows, and flooring, the heavy lifting is done, allowing for immediate move in or fun cosmetic creative freedom with decor and further personalization. The canvas is clean, beautiful and the sky's the limit! Additionally, there is an enormous unfinished basement that spans the length of the house!! There is tremendous potential to add value by bringing your own creative vision to the lower level: potential future expansion, creative space, or a music studio? Not to mention there's a detached 1 car garage, long driveway and a sprawling fenced in backyard and back deck overlooking expansive peace...
