Sunrise till Sunset -expertly designed and crafted to bring the history of its incorporated late 19th century barn to the modern west. With its soaring 35 feet of timber framed vaulted ceilings in the Great Room to the cozy reading nook; no detail has been left unattended. The home is alternately warm and cozy; luxurious and impressive. Perfectly perched on the highest knoll at Gray Head and overlooking the entire Telluride region the home's exterior is a balance of distressed barn wood and locally harvested stone with a sweeping driveway, porte cochere, water feature, waterfall and multiple stone patios. Multiple wings with en suite bedrooms for family and guests make the home comfortably suited to entertaining.
