Enjoy open water views from the deck of this beautiful custom home, designed for easy living both indoors and out. The oversized pool deck has an outdoor wood-burning fireplace, and overlooks the deep water sailboat dock, near Tampa Bay and the Gulf of Mexico beyond. The dock has electricity and a 9,000 boat lift, and there is a water supply at the seawall. The 16,000 gallon pool has a salt water generator, Jacuzzi jets and bubblers at one end, and a color-changing LED light system. The fitted kitchen has Sub-Zero and Wolff appliances, gas hob, and a cork tile floor. The central island doubles as a breakfast bar, and opens on to the great room, with formal dining room to the other side. There is a study/library off the spacious two-story foyer, with a gas fireplace, and the master suite is opposite. Take the elevator to the third floor, where three bedrooms open onto the balcony around the foyer, which also has a coffee bar/wine refrigerator. Take your refreshments out to enjoy the...
