This dramatic top floor corner unit is located in one of Glendale's sought after buildings plus is in a prime location to the downtown area & walking distance to shopping. This is one of the loveliest units available in today's market. It has breathtaking mountain views from the living room and master bedroom, wall to wall windows and a master bedroom with a quality remodeled bathroom. The loft upstairs also has views and could be used as an office or den. All the cottage cheese ceilings have been removed or covered, both bedrooms as well as the hallway closets have California Closets installed. The unit has its own washer and dryer. The two parking places in the garage are on either side of the entry door to and from the garage and from that door there is access to the second elevator in the rear of the building. The grounds are tastefully landscaped with many areas to sit and relax and there is a great community room. This unit offers everything you need for easy Califor...
