This home built in 1925 is completely renovated and looking for the perfect buyer to enjoy a fun and friendly neighborhood in University Heights. Just located off Texas St, easy access to the freeways and shopping you will find yourself wanting to hurry home to enjoy all the new amenities hand chosen to match the era of the 1920's. Professionally decorated by a designer, every thought was taken to bring you back to the years where subway tile, school house lighting, and wood floors were the norm. White cabinetry complimented by black granite is what you will find in the kitchen along with all new stainless steel appliances. New windows through out, new exterior siding and custom built pillars gives this great house the curb appeal neighbors are talking about. Drive your car behind a private gate and walk up the side/back door into the kitchen or utilize the convenience of the new French doors to access the third bedroom. Evenings are a must by the new retro tile fireplace, scon...
