Quintessential Santa Barbara Riviera home! This spacious, flowing Mediterranean showcases views of the Pacific, the Channel Islands, and the Santa Ynez Mountains – in a quiet location within minutes of downtown. Built in 2000, the two-story, 2800-sf hideaway was designed by Sam Holroyd to take advantage of views in all directions and incorporate multiple outdoor spaces into everyday living.

The welcoming entry draws your gaze through three archways framing the formal dining room and views of the mountains beyond. The adjacent living room features a formal fireplace, soaring ceilings, and expansive windows highlighting the view of La Cumbre Peak to the north, the foothills of Montecito to the east, and islands and ocean to the south. An attractive Saltillo tile deck off the living room, accessed through two sets of tall French doors, provides additional space to relax or entertain.

The entry level also includes a greatroom that incorporates a beautiful gran...
