This is a home that must be seen to be truly appreciated. From the moment you enter the front door, expansive vistas of the Skyway Bridge, Tampa Bay and the Gulf take your breath away. Only then can you take in the oak floors, the built-in cabinetry, and the fireplace, all remnants of the original home built in 1946. Renovated and expanded twice, the last time in 1990, the home now showcases high ceilings, a modern kitchen with granite countertops and expansive upstairs and downstairs decks which invite you close to the water, a seemingly private beach when the tide is out. With two master suites upstairs and two beautifully appointed guest bedrooms downstairs this home is sure to delight any person seeking the comforts of a family home while endlessly enjoying waterfront views. Spacious and comfortable, this almost 3,000 square foot home has a fenced in front yard, which can easily accommodate a swimming pool. Appliances are a ...
