A Country Life with City Convenience!

Have you ever thought of leaving the hustle and bustle of the city behind, but still want the conveniences of the city? This is the place for you! With mountain views, wide open spaces to enjoy and explore, a perfect place to raise a family; even work from home with no more hours wasted sitting in traffic.

With many activities for the whole family from raising chickens, extensive gardening, riding horses or working the Christmas tree farm. The benefits of the move will become clearer every day as you enjoy the quiet sounds of nature, the fresh country air, and even how bright the stars really are!

As you enter the 13.35 acres, you will wind your way past a sea of green; the Christmas tree farm. The farm is currently used as a tax deferral with outsourced care for m...

ABOUT TAMMY BECKLEY

Before moving to Portland, Tammy owned her own successful luxury real estate firm on the beautiful Southern Oregon coast. Deciding to move and become a Portland Sotheby's real estate agent was easy because a love affair with Portland drew Tammy to this amazing city! She moved to Portland when an opportunity presented itself to join the Cascade Sotheby's International Realty
