This fantastic story book home with a stone exterior is located on a tree lined street in one of the best locations on the east side of Des Moines. The living room has laminate wood floors and a fantastic bay window. From the living room you flow right in to the dining area and kitchen; all appliances included. Off the dining room there is access to a nice 12 X 12 deck and a view to the large fenced backyard that will make anybody happy that is looking for a little space. Upstairs you will find two spacious bedrooms, one that accomodates a king size bed. The updated bathroom is very nice with new tile flooring and silk stone vanity. Newer Furnace located in the very clean and usable basement along with an area for a workshop and the laundry room; washer/dryer included. Brand new roof, new gutters, A/C and an oversized 1 car garage makes this a place to call home!
