This Markridge Estates home was once the model home for this prestigious planned community and is situated on the best lot in the project to take advantage of all the unobstructed breathtaking views of hills, mountains and city lights. The living room has 20 ft ceilings, the family room has a fireplace and is adjacent to the gourmet kitchen with center island and a large eat in area. The spacious master suite has a fireplace and balcony taking advantage of the views. The upstairs den could easily be converted to a bedroom. The office/studio is downstairs. Enjoy the pool, spa, waterfall and barbecue area. A new pool heater and pump were installed in 2014. There is a large 3 car garage with direct entry into the home. Large laundry room has plenty of storage. This upscale community offers a tennis court for family enjoyment. The floor plan is perfect for entertaining indoors and outdoors. The professional landscaping in the front and back yard is lush and green.
