Stunning one-level home that has just received over $100,000 in Tuscany-inspired improvements. It's great from the curb but once you walk through the front door and see the soaring beamed cathedral ceilings and open floor plan you will be captivated. The formal sitting room and casual living area both feature new distressed hardwood flooring and share use of the impressive fireplace that is covered in a unique split-face travertine stone that creates an interesting focal point for both areas. Distinctive kitchen features custom wood cabinetry, French-pattern travertine flooring, honed marble countertops, Frigidaire Professional Series stainless steel appliances and a large dining area with French doors that open up to the new redwood deck and lushly landscaped rear yard. Spacious master retreat features a unique stone-covered fireplace and wall, built-in vanity, walk-in closet and inspiring full bath with spa tub. Both of the secondary bedrooms are unusually large and feature plush ...
