This 1930 built Spanish home has all the original charm with nooks, a beamed wood ceiling in the living room, original hardware and crystal knobs on doors, large formal dining room plus a kitchen with a cozy breakfast area. There are hardwood floors throughout and bamboo hardwood floors in the kitchen plus great sliding drawers making it easy to remove objects from the drawers. Included is a separate laundry room and the full bathroom has all the original tile from the 1930's. The formal dining room has French doors leading to an inviting area to sit and have your coffee in the mornings. The garage is now a one car garage because there is a room attached without permit that is perfect for an office or work out room. This Spanish home has the original tile roof and a little sitting area where you can relax and watch the world go by. This home is waiting for the buyer who is willing to restore all its original charm. It is a fixer and will be sold in as is cond...
