The Hideaway is a small enclave of new residences within the same intimate setting as the acclaimed Bacara Resort and adjacent to one of California's most distinguished 18-hole championship public golf courses. On this stretch of the Pacific, known around the world for its beauty and prestige, there are precious-few opportunities for new homes. The Hideaway makes the most of its rare setting.

Approximately one half of The Hideaway is protected open space, with preserved wetlands and native vegetation. It is adjacent to the 330 acres of the Ellwood Mesa Land Preserve, where the towering eucalyptus trees of the historic Ellwo...
