Tired of cookie-cutter rehabs? Check out this awesome Art Museum Area home. It's been rehabbed throughout and offers the bells and whistles you'd expect—stainless/granite kitchen, awesome roofdeck, finished basement, new systems—while also featuring a unique corner-property layout and cool details like original hardwood floors, turret-style bay window and a brick hearth in the kitchen. The 1st floor features a spacious living room, stylish powder room and huge eat-in kitchen with porcelain tile floors, cherry cabinets and island with breakfast bar leading to the large rear patio. The 2nd floor features a large light-flooded master bedroom with fireplace, Pottery Barn-inspired bathroom with double vanity, large whirlpool tub and separate shower, and another bedroom. The 3rd floor has another large bedroom, hall bath, laundry closet and access to the roofdeck with killer Center City views. Walk to great restaurants, museums, Kelly Drive and Whole Foods. Park...
