Very private and secluded Mount Helix ranch style home is set on over one half acre of lush tropical landscape and offers beautiful mountain and valley views. Originally built in the 1930's and full of character, this home has been lovingly updated and expanded over the years. From the moment you enter the walled and gated courtyard you will feel at home. A very special outdoor living room with fireplace and pergola will be the setting for many wonderful parties. The chef's kitchen is spacious with a large center island and opens to the breakfast area, family room and tranquil central courtyard. A gorgeous lagoon style pool and extra-large spa are built into the natural boulders of the back yard.
