Welcome to this beautiful, spacious Spanish Style home offering unique details throughout. This home is located walking distance to highly rated restaurants, boutique shops, the post office, and recreational hiking trails. The uptown Whittier area is known for its small town feel and custom historical homes. The Spanish style home is highly sought after, and this Spanish home has been updated with new HVAC and new electrical. The 1920's details have not been spared. Reproduction push button dimmers were installed, Wall light sconces were replaced, French style pocket doors are in excellent condition, built-ins remain, and custom wrought iron inside add to the charm. You will be impressed as you walk in to see the detailed high ceilings with recessed lighting, Over Sized Grand Windows, and custom millwork in the Great Room/ Family Room. The formal dining room features a custom built-in buffet to display your décor or dishes. A private office ...
