Nestled above State Street and near the foothills in one of Santa Barbara's premier neighborhoods, this updated mid-century modern home with a spacious open floor plan is a haven for entertaining and relaxing. Designed by noted Santa Barbara architect Paul Greene, this 1,768 square foot San Roque gem is bathed in sunshine and features four bedrooms, two full baths plus a guest half-bath, a large swimming pool, and easy proximity to Monte Vista School, local parks, restaurants, shopping, and hiking trails.

Step into the serene open courtyard, shaded by ancient oaks and landscaped with drought-friendly plantings. The dramatic glass-and-steel entryway features a slate stone floor, period-revival light fixtures and an ample coat closet. Period details abound throughout the home, from the original louvered windows to the sleek light fixtures and bold pops of color. The light-filled living area provides an ideal space for entertaining wit...
